Smouldering cushions level
Kushog Lake cottage, Sat.

A chimney fire at the Norley Road home of Mr. Larry Vanlieshout brought the Stanhope Fire Dept. out Friday evening at 10 pm and fortunately the fire did not do any damage to the house and was out when firemen arrived.

On Saturday afternoon at 5:10 pm however, a call was received to a Kushog Lake cottage owned by Jim Chewko of Hamilton, Ontario.

Apparently Mrs. Chewko had clothes drying beside an electric heater when they caught fire burning a nearby chesterfield and cushions.

When firemen arrived the fire itself was contained to the livingroom and was extinguished and the entire area wet down.

Chief George Wilson and firefighters remained on the scene for nearly an hour before leaving to ensure that everything was safe.

Unfortunately, Mr. Chewko returned the chesterfield cushions to the inside of the cottage after they had been dipped in the lake, and once again fire broke out at 9:10 pm that evening, destroying the cottage.

Chief Wilson told The Express Monday that both he and the Fire Marshall's office confirmed that the probable cause of the second fire was the cushions themselves. It is believed that when the cushions were dipped in the lake, the water did not entirely extinguish the smouldering inside the cushion itself.

The investigation of this unfortunate incident continues.

CKLY van hits rock cut, driver injured

MINDEN — Barbara Vali 24, a news reporter with CKLY Radio in Lindsay suffered serious head injuries on Wednesday evening when the 1971 company van she was driving on highway 35 near the Twelve Mile Lake bridge, hit a rock cut. The southbound van rounded a curve to the right, left the roadway on the east side of the highway striking six mail boxes and continued on into the rockcut.

Vali was then thrown out of the vehicle's rear doors and suffered a possible fractured skull. Minden ambulance was called to the scene and Miss Vali was rushed to hospital in Lindsay where she was later taken to Sunnybrook hospital in Toronto where she remains in satisfactory condition. Damage to the van was reported at $6,000.

Lake of Bays councillor killed in fall at Camp Dorset

DORSET — A tragic accident claimed the life of a popular and respected Dorset resident Jim McKey, a councillor for the Township of Lake of Bays, who was helping with some construction work at the Dorset Dialysis Camp on Sunday, Sept. 30th, when he fell. He was taken to Toronto General Hospital where he passed away Monday, Oct. 8th.

Mr. McKey a lifetime resident of Dorset, had just retired from his real estate business. He was an active and concerned member of the community, serving for many years as reeve of Ridout Township before district government came in.

He was appointed to the Lake of Bays council in 1973 and re-elected every time subsequently. He sat on the committee for the Ridout Community Centre and was an active member of the Dorset Lions Club. Mr. McKey took a great interest in the dialysis camp and was one of the many volunteers who keep the camp running.

Mr. McKey who was 65 years old, is survived by his wife Phyllis and his daughter Kim, (Mrs. Steve Tebby), and by a brother and sister both living in Dorset.

CARNARVON — The annual meeting of the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce took place at the Stanhope Firefighters Hall on Wednesday evening. There was a fair turnout of Haliburton County residents and four new directors were elected to the Board. The highlight of the evening was this year's honoree for Highlander of the Year, Mrs. Carole Finn, for all her tireless work in seeing the completion of the beautiful new Rails End Gallery in Haliburton. Mrs. Finn worked long hours with both Dysart and the Guild of Fine Arts from the early planning stages to the final completion of the Gallery. Earlier this year, Mrs. Finn continued to work at the Gallery booking many fine exhibitions of arts and crafts for not only the many tourists that visit the area each year but also for the residents of the county.

ing with the doctor's who attended the young boy, they said that the quick action of the Porter girl probably helped save his life. On Tuesday evening at Mr. Fogg's Restaurant in Carnarvon, Miss Porter was presented with a Silver medallion for her "act of bravery" by the Minden Kinette Club.

On the subject of proposed boat launch and swim area in Ingoldsby, bylaw officer R. C. Schell made a report to council advising that a suitable site was not available at the moment for the residents Council agreed that if the people could locate an appropriate area, the township would proceed with its development.

A motion by Lonsberry and Brandon was accepted by council that Autumn Davis be employed as a part time employee on a six month probationary period.

Social planning council

Social Planning Council is a phrase that is sometimes misunderstood. The council is a group of volunteers of interested citizens from around the County who are anxious that only the best is available for the whole County.

In the past, the council has been successful in discussing and promoting such things as senior citizens' facilities, single parent groups, alcoholic and drug seminars, childrens' services, welfare services and others. At present a program for Home Support for shut-ins and handicapped persons is nearing finalization.

All are invited to attend the monthly meetings held in various communities. This month, it's at the West Guilford Community Hall on Wed., Oct. 24th at 10 a.m. (coffee 9:30).

HHSS Girls Basketball

HALIBURTON — The season's girls basketball program is underway at HHSS and although the teams have dropped their first two games to Lindsay and I. E. Weldon, the spirits are still high among the three teams.

On Oct. 4th the three HHSS girls teams opened the new season on their own court against the powerful Lindsay gang. In the opener, the Midgets from Haliburton went down 42-32 but played well and even looked like they might upset the favourite Lindsay girls.

On the showing of the midgets in this game the opposition better keep their eyes on their checks, or the Haliburton girls are going to walk off with victories. Scoring in the game went to Marla MacNaull with 8, Janice Emmerson 6, Jenny Williams 4, Chris Storey 4, Sandi Walker 2, Lianne Bittman 4, Debbie Ingram 2 and Lori Kellett 2. Marilyn Ferguson led Lindsay with 12 pts. eight in the final quarter. Joanne Graham also netted 12 pts.

Juniors 10 Lindsay 35 Juniors 8 Weldon 47

On Oct. 4th against Lindsay, the Jrs. just couldn't get untracked until the third quarter. However, by that time Lindsay was well ahead. Lisa Dunham and Corinne Neville each got four pts for Haliburton while Jane Hicks had two. Jocelyn Logan had eight for Lindsay and Pat Kartes nine.

Then on the 11th, Haliburton travelled to Weldon and met what probably will be this year's champions. Haliburton was completely contained in this match by the far bigger Weldon five. Corinne Neville scored four pts for our side with two coming from the arms of Nancy Shipley and Anita McKinley. Lettinga, perhaps the finest junior girls basketball player in the league, scored 16 pts while playing only the first and third quarter.

Seniors 22 Lindsay 65 Seniors 22 Weldon 27

In the senior girls basketball game on the 5th, Lindsay really came up with a superb effort against the home squad. They led 12-2 after one period, and 28 at the half. Then in the second half they dumped 37 pts through the hoop to win going away 65-22.

Cathy Darby scored 4, Marlene Darby 6, Miriam Vanderwal 4, Margie Newton 2, Wendy Roberts 2, Janet Mayo 2 and Jocelyn Kennedy 2.

When Weldon visits the friendly confines of HHSS it will come as no surprise if Haliburton knock the favoured Weldon girls. They proved they can come back on this fine squad and with just a little more work the girls from Haliburton should claim a victory. Janet Mayo led the home girls with 4 pts, while Cathy and Marlene Darby, Shelley Thomson, Miriam Vanderwal and Margie Newton each had 2.

WHAT NEXT? Diana Nyad, the marathoner who swam 89 miles from Bimini to Florida, has her sights set on another difficult journey. She is training to swim from Cuba to Florida.

Wes Stata rolls 356 single, Carn. Lanes tops standings

CARNARVON — Last Wednesday evening Wes Stata gave the big guns in the men's commercial something to shoot for this season when he posted a 356 single game. The outstanding effort by Stata vaulted his team, the Guilford Recreation into second place in league standings, one pt. behind Carnarvon Lanes. Peterborough Lumber fell to third spot, making it the first time in almost a year since the PL boys have been out of first place in the league.

The standings after three weeks of keen competition has Carnarvon Lanes on top with 47, Guilford Recreation 46, PL 43, Modern Electric 39, Ingoldsby 37 and Jim's Barber Shop 31.

Top scores last week went to: Doug Leonard 715; Fred Cox 766; Gord Everall 739; Ron Robinson 720; Dave Barker 698; and Bob Heppleston 675.

Poke a fork in each of the potatoes and bake at 350 degrees F. (190°C.) until done (about an hour). Place potatoes on a counter and remove the tops of the jackets by cutting an oval from the top side of each. Take out the potato meat carefully, without ripping the jackets. Grate 2 wieners and dice 1 small onion and 4 stuffed olives. Mix the potato meat, the wieners, the onion, the olives, 1/4 cup (2 mL) of milk 1/2 teaspoon (2 mL) salt, and 1/4 teaspoon (1 mL) pepper. Mix together until mixture is smooth. Stuff the jackets. Cover each potato with a slice of Cheddar cheese and place under a broiler until the cheese melts. Sprinkle the melted cheese with paprika. These stuffed potatoes can be peppered up by substituting sour cream for milk and by adding other spices or condiments. They can also be made well in advance. Keep them in the refrigerator and when ready to be served, heat for about 15 minutes and then cover with cheese and broil.

* Weeny Specials are a special treat for the children, and easy to prepare. Combine 4 ounces (113 g) diced cheddar cheese with 1/4 cup (50 mL) chopped pimento-stuffed olives and 2 tablespoons (30 mL) of grated onion. Split 1 pound (500 g) of wieners in half lengthwise almost to bottom. Fill with cheese mixture. Broil until cheese melts, 3 to 5 minutes. Serve on plain or toasted hot dog buns. These ingredients will produce 8 to 10 Weeny Specials.

* Add sauteed bologna strips to German-style potato salad for a savory side dish.

* Looking for interesting hors d'oeuvres for your next party?

Why not try this Bavarian Dip. Beat until blended together 1 4-ounce (113 g) package of cream cheese, 1 8-ounce (227 g) package of liver sausage and 2 tablespoons (30 mL) lemon juice. Add 1 package dry onion soup mix, 2 1/2 cup (150 mL) evaporated milk, 1 tablespoon (15 mL) horseradish, and 1 teaspoon (5 mL) Worcestershire sauce. Beat until thoroughly blended. Chill before serving with crackers, wheat thins or sesame rounds.

* Sweet and Sour Wieners are another party idea. Combine 1 10-ounce (284 mL) bottle of chili sauce and 1 9-ounce (256 mL) jar of grape jelly in a saucepan or chafing dish and heat until blended. Cut 2 1-pound (500 g) packages of wieners into 1/2-inch (12 mm) pieces. Reserve ends of wieners for use in sandwiches or scrambled eggs. Add remaining slices to chili sauce mixture. Heat thoroughly. Makes 5 dozen pieces.

New Board members elected to Chamber of Commerce

STANHOPE — The Chamber of Commerce's annual meeting was held last week in the Stanhope Fire-fighters Hall and a good time was had by all — but many of our members weren't there. We wonder why, because this is your Chamber, and out of 325 members only 39 votes determined your board of directors for the coming year. We were very pleased that more than enough individuals indicated their very real interest in the Chamber by running for office, but certainly disappointed in the number that came to vote for them.

The evening was successful, an excellent board was elected, the 85 people that were there said they enjoyed it, it's just that we wonder what else we should be doing to encourage more to attend. If you have some thoughts on it please let us know.

Our hearty congratulations go out to Carole Finn who was awarded the Highlander of the Year award for her many efforts over the years with the Guild of Fine Arts and in particular for the driving force she provided in creating the Rail's End Gallery.

The four new members of the board are: Keith Stephenson, owner-operator of Haliburton Highlands Golf Club. Keith moved from Aurora where he previously operated a successful drywall business; Jack Brezina, a native of Kitchener and former editor of the Northland Post in Cochrane, present owner of The Times; Dave Chatfield, a freelance media representative, background in advertising and marketing; Paulette Blake, owner of Paulette's Antiques and Gifts, active member of the business association, concerned merchant working toward a progressive county. These four now join the present Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, president John Hogg, vice-president Jim McLean and Directors, Barbara Bolin, Tim Casey, Rhonda Elstone, Bruce Henry, Anne Lee and James Orr.

Environment project ends with detection of 165 automobiles

Martina Moses and Debbie Machino led a successful 12-week battle for environmental protection and improvement on the Pic #50 Band reserve in Heron Bay this summer.

The Experience '79 project, aimed at pollution and poison control, was one of over 100 such projects coordinated by the Ministry of the Environment and employing 389 students under the Ontario student program.

Ontario's Youth Secretariat has organized the Experience program since 1973, providing summer employment and career-related experience for students across the Province.

The project employed two girls from the reserve, located in Heron Bay, some 250 miles east of Thunder Bay.

Safety with pesticides and other toxic home substances was one of the objectives of the project. "We wrote to the Ministry of Health for printed information and passed it on to the people. We also inspected most of the 60 houses on the reserve and advised residents where to keep products such as pills, old cans of paint, pesticides and other hazardous substances," Martina Moses said.

"For me, the most satisfying result was getting rid of about 165 abandoned old cars that were a real eyesore on the reserve. Everyone wanted them removed and we finally did it. First we borrowed equipment from American Can Company to pull the cars out of the bushes and then we arranged for a car basher to smash them up and take the loads down to Thunder Bay.

"The band only had to pay the man who operated the company's machine. Any residents who had cars removed from their backyards signed a special form stating they did give up the old cars."

All forms of litter, both on the ground and in the creeks, were also a constant concern for Martina and Debbie. At least once a week, the girls cleaned up the public areas of the reserve.

They also designed posters aimed at increasing community awareness of pollution problems, arranged for removal of garbage from the reserve and learned to check the quality of drinking water by taking samples and interpreting lab results.

"We also ran an anti-litter day which went really well. Thirty-five kids from ages 5-12 participated in the clean-up. Then in the evening we had a sing-along and gave the kids food prizes for the pieces of litter each had collected," the girls said. "Sorting through the trash wasn't too pleasant, but it paid off."

"The effects of the project are very visible. Everyone who visits the reserve notices big changes there. The project was money well spent," says Frank Wright of Environment Ontario's Thunder Bay office.

For Cindy Fisher who set up the project, its success lies not only with the visual improvements on the reserve. "Involvement and awareness in the community was another important aspect of the project and the band council gave its full backing," she said.

"I love to work outdoors, and having a chance to make real improvements in my community while learning more about the environment made for a great experience," concluded Martina.

Ask Alma

Dear Alma:

My husband's boss took us out to dinner at a classy restaurant to celebrate Barry's promotion. During the meal, Mr. S. mistakenly began to eat my salad plate. Barry ate his own salad, and I just stared longingly at the last salad going uneaten across the table. Should I have asked for it? — Rita

Dear Rita:
